

Shield design ideas

Medieval shields were designed so that knights could be identified on the battlefield when they had their helmets on. After all, you didn't want to kill the wrong knight!

Here are some basic ways the shield was divided up into colours:

